Flex Hours:

Art instruction that fits your schedule

The Richmond Art Museum is introducing a new program for students age 5 – 8th grade.

The Flex Hours program is for any student seeking individual instruction in drawing or painting.

Instructor Bess Sturgis will be available at RAM on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month from 4–6 PM for appointments. The Flex Hours program begins on October 5th.

Call RAM to register; instruction is by appointment only.

Art Instruction Available in: Painting & Drawing

Materials List:

Painting Students:

- Acrylic paints of student's choice – red, yellow, blue, titanium white.
- One small canvas of student's choice.
- Brushes of student's choice
  - 1 round
  - 1 flat
  - 1 very small
- One empty cereal box with liner removed.

Drawing Students:

- Drawing board
- Drawing paper (no newsprint or computer paper please)
- Drawing utensils of student's choice
- Requested pencils/graphite
  - 1 8B or 6B
  - 1 4B
  - 1 HB or #2 lead pencil
- Kneadable eraser

Note to Parents:

- Flexible scheduling allows students to choose a one hour work time between 4 and 6 PM to avoid scheduling conflicts with other activities
- Pencils, paper, paints and brushes do not need to be expensive. Meijer, Wal-Mart and Hobby Lobby have nice, user-friendly student grade supplies.

Things to Remember:

- Open Studio meets on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month beginning October 5th, 2010.
- Students may make an appointment for one hour of instruction between 4—6 PM.
- Students must come with an idea of what they wish to learn in mind and come prepared to draw or paint and have fun!
- Instruction is technique oriented, focusing on developing fundamental artistic skills
- Instruction is by appointment only. Call RAM to register and schedule appointments for your sessions.
- All students who are at least five years old are welcome and encouraged to participate!

Fees:

$10 / hour (RAM Members)

$12 / hour (General Public)

- You may purchase multiple hours to be used at your convenience or you may pay per session.
